Linda Faye Taylor

Linda Faye Taylor was born on September 27, 1945 to L. C. and Lula Bell Black.

Linda married John Taylor on March 20, 1976. At the age of 23, she got saved and gave her life to the Lord, and served the Lord with gladness. Linda and John have two sons, Lawrence and Lamont Black.

Linda joined the Old Landmark Church, under the leadership of the late Apostle Robert L. Mitchell. Faithful and dedicated as one could be to the Lord, she never lost her faith in the Lord. She led many family members to the Lord; her mother, brothers, sisters, nephews and nieces, and they were saved through the life that she lived. Also, many friends came to the Lord through her nurturing spirit and kind, generous, hospitable personality. Linda extended her love and service to all people; she was no respecter of persons.

Linda was an amazing, wonderful, God-sent witness for the Lord, and even on her sick bed, she would witness and let everyone know that she was “saved, sanctified, baptized and filled with the Holy Ghost.” She was truly a worker in God’s vineyard.

Linda departed this life on April 5, 2024. She leaves to cherish her memories her husband John; two sons, Lawrence and Lamont; and a host of nieces, nephews, grandchildren and friends.

Remember Me

To the living, I am gone,

To the sorrowful, I will never return,

To the angry, I was cheated,

But to the happy, I am at peace,

And to the faithful, I have never left.

I cannot speak, but I can listen.

I cannot be seen, but I can be heard.

So as you stand upon a shore gazing at a beautiful sea,

As you look upon a flower and admire its simplicity,

Remember me.

Remember me in your heart:

Your thoughts, and your memories,

Of the times we loved,

The times we cried,

The times we fought,

The times we laughed.

For if you always think of me, I will never have gone.
