

To My Beloved Husband,

No words can truly express how much I miss you every single day. Your love, your smile, your sense of humor, and your kindness—I long for them all. No one truly knows the depth of my sorrow. Now, all I have are memories and photos in a frame, reminders of the beautiful life we shared. If it were possible, I would have borne your pain for you. My world was brighter because you were in it, and I was always so proud of you. My love for you is constant, unconditional, and eternal. I am forever grateful for the precious blessings you have left behind—our bundle of joy. I find comfort in knowing you are at peace now, free from pain. Sleep peacefully, my love.

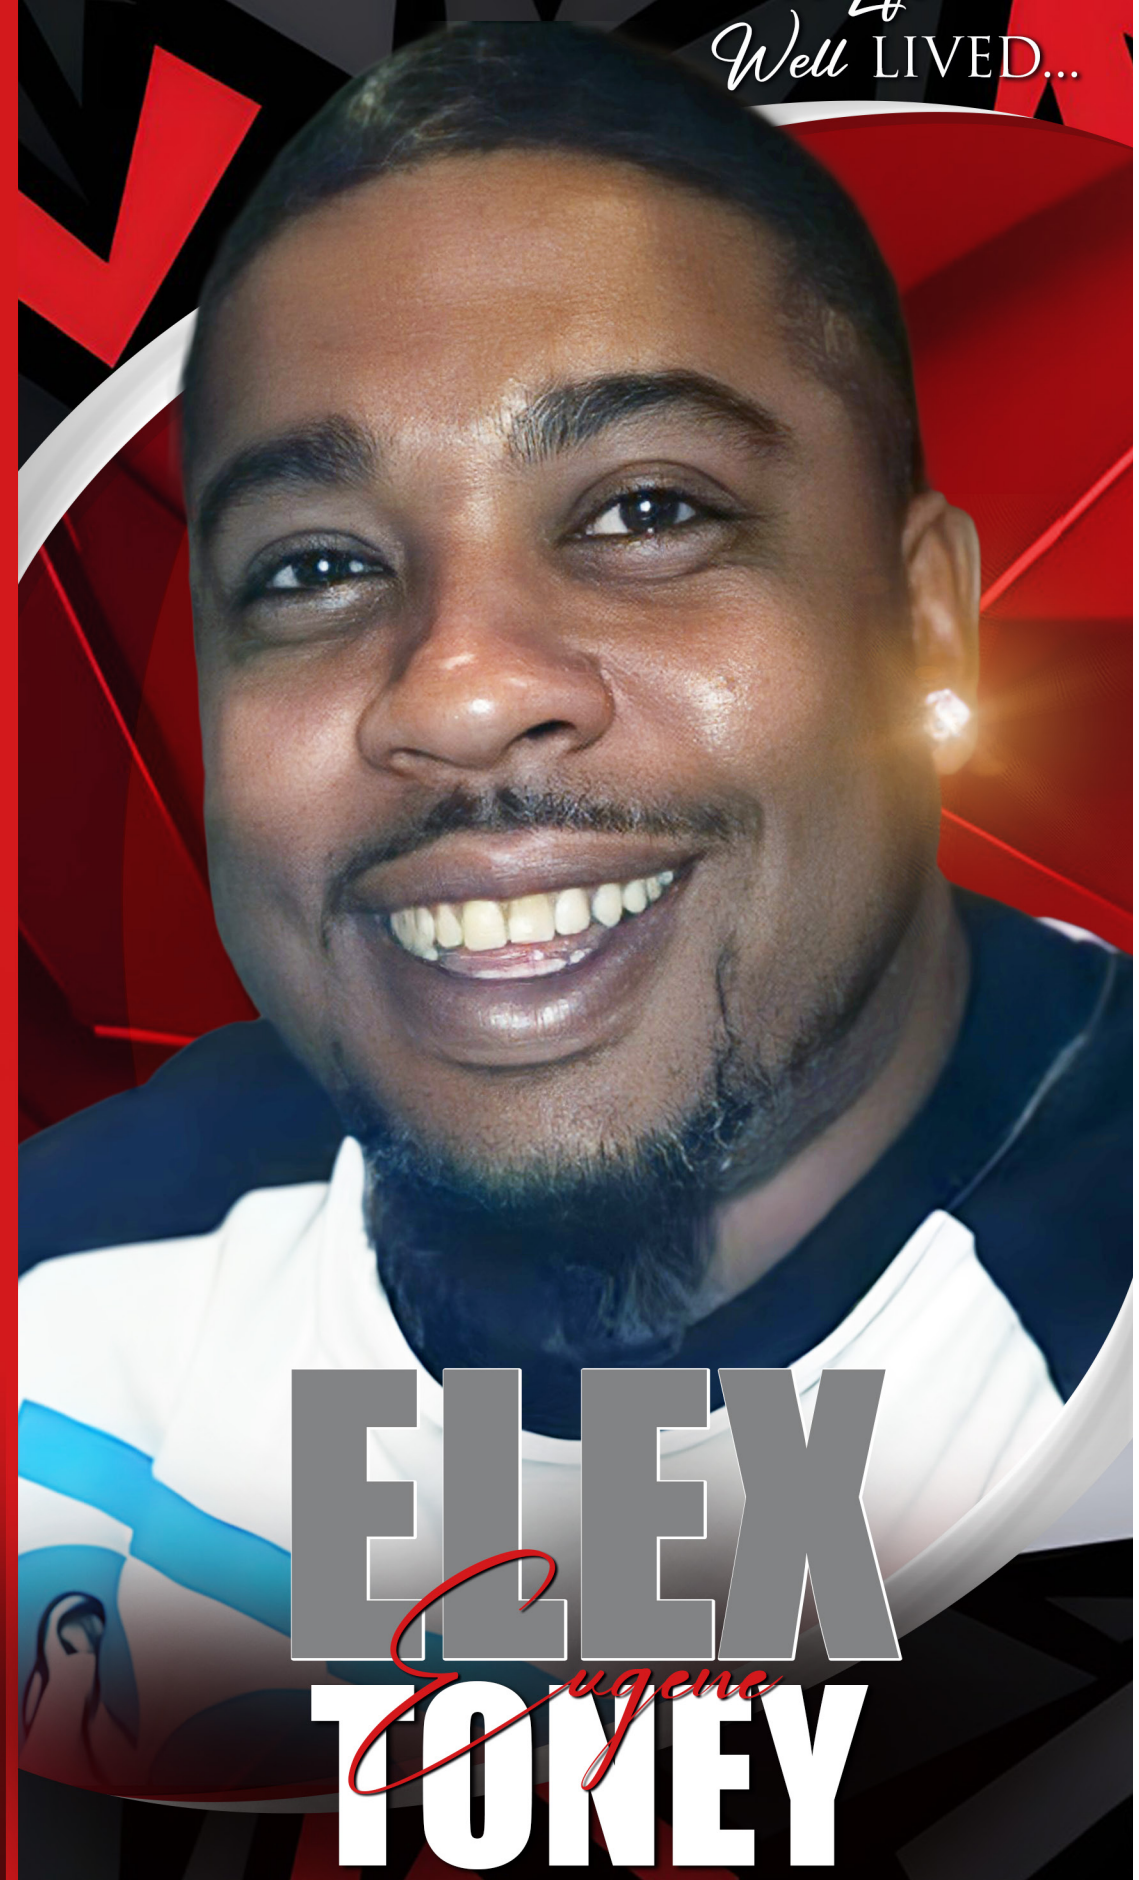

*Forever Yours,
Your Loving Wife, Shadawn*

Elex Eugene Toney

Elex Eugene Toney was born on August 30, 1980, in Chicago, IL, to Mrs. Deborah Toney and Mr. Don Neasley.

He attended Carver High School and was a jack-of-all-trades, holding many jobs to provide for his family.

In 2004, Elex met his sweetheart, Shadawn King, and their relationship blossomed. They were united in marriage on February 14, 2012.

In August 2024, Elex fell seriously ill, and on February 15, 2025, God called him home to eternal rest.

Elex leaves to cherish his memory his devoted and loving wife, Shadawn King-Toney. He was a proud and loving father who dedicated himself to providing for his children: Elex Eugence Toney Jr., Da'vion Harris, Maliyah Toney, Makeyah Toney, and Malik King-Toney. Two Grandchildren: Honesty Martin and Lyric Lawson.

He is survived by his siblings: Sisters, Willie Toney, Ida Toney, Donna Neasley, and honorary sister Olivia Toney. Brothers: Donnie Neasley, Kevin Neasley, who preceded him in death. Keith Neasley, and honorary brothers Danvell Toney and Danzel Toney.

Elex had a host of nieces and nephews whom he loved dearly, including Derrick Nicholson, Cyle Burns, Kenneth Staniel Jr., and Melakai Toney, as well as his godchild, Khalil Fitch. He also leaves behind a loving extended family of aunts, uncles, and cousins. He was preceded in death by his mother, Deborah Toney, father Don Neasley, grandmother Ida Toney, grandfather George Lester, aunt Kathy Toney, uncle Jodie Toney, cousins, and Joseph King (his brother at heart).

Elex's presence, love, and devotion to his family will be deeply missed but forever cherished.

Expressions of Love

Dear Dad,

You were an exceptionally good and loving father to us. Whatever we needed, you were there. You provided for us. You brought me happiness when I felt down. I love you, father.

Love, Makeyah

Dear Dad,

I am going to miss getting up at night to taste or eat something you spontaneously made. I'm going to miss you being here and always calling me to go driving somewhere with you because you don't want to go by yourself. There is nothing I miss more than arguing with you over your music being loud some late nights. I know that you are in a better place now, and I pray that you are truly at peace. You will watch over us to make sure we're safe. As you always told me, I was your daughter who would go to college and do big things. I wish you were still here to see it all. I will make you proud. I miss and love you, Daddy.

Love, Maliyah

Dear Pops,

I love you, Daddy. I am going to miss you. I'm going to continue to honor your legacy. I just wish I could walk with you one more time to Harold's Chicken on 127th, one of our favorite lunch spots. Just want to say I love you, Daddy. You are in a better place.

Love, Davion

To my Daddy,

Hey Dad, you are my true Superhero. I am going to miss you so much!

I love you, Dad.

Love, Malik

Pops,

I love you to the moon and back. I am lucky to have had you as a father. You're so special, and I'm going to miss you so much. I'm going to miss playing cards with you and spending time as a family and the love you showed me. As much as I hate not having you around, I'm happy to know you're at peace. You may not be with me anymore, but my love for you will never die.

Love, Lil Elex
