Her Life & Legacy

Lady Eve Marie Lewis

Lady Eve Marie Lewis was born on April 6, 1959, to John Kelly and Carol Lee Wilson-Williams of Chicago Illinois. Her homegoing was preceded by her mother Carol Williams, father John Kelly and one sister Denise Vance.

Lady Eve was the oldest of seven children and grew up in Altgeld Gardens. Later her family moved to 111th street and from there she attended Harlen High school and joined the swim team. Lady Eve also confessed her faith in Christ at an early age. She attended the Light of the World C.O.G.I.C. Church with her Grandmother Missionary Carrie Wilson A.K.A. (Big Momma).

Lady Eve worked at Bellscott Department Store as well as Monarch Laundry in her teenage years. At Monarch Laundry, she worked with several other family and community members including the love of her life, Jerry Lewis. Monarch Laundry is where Jerry and Lady Eve met, and Lady Eve swept Jerry Lewis off of his feet.

Lady Eve joined Jerry during his military service as a United States Marine at Camp Pendleton in California. Lady Eve and Jerry have been together 45 blessed years. Praise God! Lady Eve and Jerry returned to Chicago in the mid 80's, where Lady Eve began working at Standard Bank as an Executive Vault Manager until she retired.

Lady Eve served as a faithful member and leader of the New Covenant Assembly of Peace Church C.O.G.I.C. She served her husband well as a "Preacher's Wife" and understood the value of the ministry and God's word. She served in the choir and was head of the Pastor's Aide Committee, and any department that needed her service and support. What Lady Eve enjoyed the most was being the Chair of the Pastor's Aide Committee.

In addition to her faith Lady Eve was a fashionista. She loved her denim fits, vibrant church hats, and her chic skirts and blazers. You couldn't rock with her unless you had your drip together. She would let you know if you tried. Lady Eve was a "Bad Mama Jama" on her roller skates and stepping. a.k.a "Boppin" was her jam. Bowling was another activity that she loved and would enjoy so much with her family. She loved her western movies, and the color red was her diva stamp, especially her red lipstick.

Even with all her fabulous and glamorous ways, Lady Eve still always expressed her value of "Family". She did this by exemplifying togetherness, love, and treating everyone as her own. She loved her children exceedingly! She spread that same love so deeply to her grandchildren. Lady Eve was a biological mother of 3, but was a mother figure to many. She found a way to move with signature class and still display nurturing love to everyone she came in contact with. Whether it was a few minutes or several hours her warmth was radiant and made so many people feel loved. Her Godly love is felt from California to South Africa, and she will be deeply missed.

Lady Eve, who loved her pearls, traded them in for her crown on March 8, 2024. She leaves to cherish in her memory her beloved and devoted husband Elder Jerry L. Lewis, three sons: Quincy (Denise) Lewis, Christopher (Raven) Lewis, and Curtis Lewis. Four grandchildren: Quincy Jr., Demetri, Hendrix, and her love bug Chloe. Three brothers: Anthony 'Big A' (Bernadine) Williams, Harold (Brenda) Williams, Andre 'Boo' (Belinda) Williams, and two sisters Lechonne Williams and Carolyn 'Shire' (Robert) Mason, in addition to a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends, and especially the Lewis Family.
