LIFE REFLECTIONS

Lindsey Meeks Jr. was born November 25, 1948, to the late Lindsey Meeks Sr. and Ophelia N. Meeks in Holmes County, Mississippi. Lindsey received his education in Black Hawk, Mississippi. He accepted Christ as his personal savior at an early age. He attended Bethel C.M.E Church in Black Hawk, Mississippi.

In 1972, he was united in holy matrimony to the love of his life, Lillie Anita Ford. God blessed their union with two children: Katina Daniel and Rodney Meeks. Lindsey left Mississippi right after Vaiden High School to come to Chicago (Brite lights, Big City). He was very family-oriented and served as the patriarch of the entire family. He was the head and the strength of the family unit, humble yet proud. He was affectionate.

Lindsey held a position as a Manager at Zenith for over thirty years. He was well-loved at his job. He was then employed by Jernberg, Industries as a supervisor for ten years before retiring. He received various accolades, awards, and honors during his tenure and never missed a day of work.

Lindsey loved his family life and spending time with his children. His generous and loving spirit will be truly missed. He took great pleasure in beautifying his home and maintaining his garden that he and the grandbabies grew. Lindsey was a man of great style. He was a loving husband, father, grandfather, great grandfather, uncle, brother and friend. He was the epitome of what a male role model should be.

Lindsey was preceded in death by father, Lindsey Meeks Sr, two brothers Henry Lee Meeks and John Meeks.

Lindsey leaves to cherish his memory daughter Katina (Anthony) Daniel; son Rodney Meeks; five grandchildren; two great grandchildren; six brothers: James (Linda) Meeks, Curtis (Jessie) Meeks, Jesse Earl Meeks and Bernard Meeks; four sisters: Mary (Jesse) Smith, Earline (Jeffrey) Williams, Christine (James deceased) Silas and Hattie Gayden; Last two living aunts: Poly Wright and Almira Smith; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Expressions of Love

Right now I'm in a different place

And though we seem apart

I'm closer than I ever was,

I'm there inside your heart.

I'm with you when you greet each day

And while the sun shines bright

I'm there to share the sunsets, too.

I'm with you every night.

I'm with you when the times are good

To share a laugh or two,

I'll still be there for you.

And when that day arrives

That we no longer are apart,

I'll smile and hold you close to me,

Forever in my heart.
