In Loving Memory of Judith Caulton

Judith Caulton, affectionately known as Judy, Lynn, or Granny, was a devoted mother, grandmother, sister, and friend. She peacefully completed her earthly voyage on Saturday, April 11, 2026, when she was called home to be with the Lord.

Born on a military base near Jefferson City, Missouri, Judith was the daughter of Charles Houston Caulton and the late Mary Rivers-Caulton. She was raised in Chicago, Illinois, where she was educated through the Chicago Public Schools.

Judith's passion for life was most evident when she was surrounded by the people she loved. She was a woman who truly loved to laugh, and you could often find her singing, dancing, or at the center of a lively card game. She possessed a sharp wit and a true gift for playing spades and bid whist. Judith commanded the table, always laughing, playing with skill, and playfully talking smack to anyone who challenged her.

Her love also lived in her kitchen. She loved to cook for her family and friends, and it was often said that you could feel her love in every meal she prepared. Above all, Judith was family-oriented to her core. Her face would light up with a priceless, radiant smile whenever she saw her grandchildren and great-grandchildren, a joy that remained undimmed even when she became non-verbal in her later days.

Judith was preceded in death by her mother, Mary Rivers-Caulton; her step-mother, Lula Mae Caulton; her brothers, Charles Caulton Jr., and Billy Nash; her sisters, Sandra Caulton, Barbara Caulton, Juanita Gaston, and Barbara Crafton; and her nephews, Julius Coulter, Antoine Coulter, and Dax Harper, and her nieces Jaleesa Gaston and Shauntay Gaston.

Judith leaves behind a beautiful and sprawling legacy. She is survived by: Her Children: Henrietta Caulton, Byron (Rae) Caulton, Mary Caulton, Trecole (Walter) Carr, Monique Caulton, and Erica Caulton. Her Father: Charles Caulton. Siblings: Sisters Joyce Harper, Gina Randolph, Vivian Caulton, Alexis Williams, Hazel Lockett, and Rosie Caulton; brothers Fredrick Caulton and James Davis-Caulton.

Grandchildren: Byron Caulton Jr., Keyanta Townes, Deshaun (Susie) Caulton, Jalesa Stewart, Bryce (Aaliyah) Caulton, Sylvester Caulton, Semaj Caulton, Wakeda Carr, Breimi Caulton, Walter Carr III, Brock Caulton, Brandon Caulton, and Brendon Caulton.

Great-grandchildren: Kyla Townes, Jamiyah Stewart, Brylee Caulton, Jaylin Stewart, Jayceon Carter, Ameena Caulton, Bryce Caulton Jr., Josiah Stewart, Kingsley Alexander, Byron Caulton III, Akeem Caulton, Brynlee Caulton, Aiden Caulton, Samiya Caulton, Brendon Caulton Jr., Maryssa Lerma, and Brandt Lerma.

Nieces and Nephews: Kshell (Richard) Clemons, Sharron Coulter, Cynthia Davis, Adrianna Davis, Dominique Randolph, Danielle Randolph, David (Katreka) Caulton, Antoine Coulter Jr., Charles Caulton III, Kinley Poole, and Emmanuel Davis. Her Lifelong Sister and Friend: Sharon Branson. And a host of other relatives and dear friends.

Judith's warmth, her cooking, and her unforgettable smile will be deeply missed but forever celebrated by all who were blessed to know her.

Expressions of Love

My mother was my greatest inspiration, and the many lessons she taught me will live on through my children and grandchildren for generations to come. While my life will never be the same without her, I will cherish her memory forever and miss her more than words can express. Mom, your grandchildren will think of you and will carry you in their hearts always. Rest peacefully, knowing just how deeply you are loved.

Love Sabrina, Tanka, Hakeem, Kyla, Ameena and Akeem

Things I'll always hold dear to me about my Mom! How we would spend all day in the stores bargain shopping, how she passed her love of music on to me and I even learned how to trash talk at the card table because she did it so freely. I wasn't able to master her skills in the kitchen; however, I can spot a good meal easily. Most importantly she taught me how to be a strong woman, no matter what life challenges she endured she continued to overcome! She showed me what it takes to provide for your family and to always have a bank stash hidden for hard times! I'll always love you Mama, you're one in a million!!
