

Psalm 27: 1-2

The Lord is my Light and my Salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life of whom shall I be afraid? When the wicked even mine enemies and my foes came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumble and fell.

Our Great-Grandma lived 84 beautiful years filled with love, strength, and service to others. She opened her heart and her home to anyone in need, and she was loved and respected by all who knew her.

To us, she was more than a great-grandmother she was a mother, a protector, and the heart of our family.

Though she is no longer with us, her love, lessons, and legacy will live on through every generation that follows.
