

In Our Hearts

*We thought of you today.
But that is nothing new.
We thought about you yesterday. And days before that too.*

*We think of you in silence.
We often speak your name.
Now all we have are memories. And your picture in a frame.*

*Your memory is our keepsake. With which we'll never part. God has you in his keeping. We have you in our heart.
Love always, Jr and Donell*

appreciation your kind expressions of sympathy

Lula
MAE DOUGLAS

SEPTEMBER 19, 1937 - NOVEMBER 30, 2022

Life Reflections

Lula Mae Douglas, affectionately known as “Lu Mae” and “Aunt Sis” was born September 19, 1937 in Mound Bayou Mississippi. She was the youngest of seven children born to the late Claiborne and Francis Pratt. Lu Mae departed this earthly life on Wednesday, November 30, 2022.

Lu Mae spent her childhood and early teenage years in Mississippi where she also received her formal education. She moved to Chicago and later married the love of her life Willie “C” Douglas in 1953. From this union three children were born: Diane, Willie Jr. and Donell.

Lu Mae received Christ at an early age and was a member of Mt. Moriah Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. O. C. Nicks in Chicago, IL. She had a strong faith that she sustained throughout her life.

Lu Mae went on to work for several companies including the United States Post Office and Republic Steel before retiring from the workforce. She was a hard worker and put her all into everything she did. Lu Mae enjoyed taking care of her family. She was a great wife and mother and was instrumental in the upbringing of her first grandson Donell aka “Lil Man”. She was always cooking or cleaning something. Lu Mae was very opinionated and firm in her beliefs, and only a phone call away for whatever her family and friends needed.

Lu Mae was preceded in death by her husband, Willie “C” Douglas; daughter, Diane; sisters: Ruby Gayden and Elnora Jamison; brothers: Claiborne Pratt Jr., Willie Pratt, Robert Pratt and Walter Lee Pratt.

Lu Mae leaves to cherish her memories two sons, Willie Jr. and Donell; one daughter in-law, Annette (Willie Jr.); three grandchildren: Donell, Shepale (Raymond), and Willie III; five great-grandchildren: Travon, DeSear, DeMarco, Reagan and Kyri; and a host of great-great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and caregivers.
