CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF.

Letorice "PAT" MILES

Sunrise: April 9, 1937 - Sunset: January 19, 2025

Her Story

On January 19, 2025, Letorice Miles, affectionately known as Ms. Pat, departed this world at the age of 87. She was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, sister, and friend whose love, compassion, and kindness left an indelible mark on the lives of all who knew her. Born in Hollyspring, Mississippi on April 9, 1937, Pat was the daughter of Hattie Mickiney and Wren Hughes (both preceded her in death). Unbeknownst to them, they had raised an exceptionally brilliant young lady who consistently strived for excellence, achieving her goals with determination.

“Pet” relocated to Chicago, Illinois, where she met the love of her life, AB Miles (who preceded her in death as well). Pet was known for always being on the go, attending every family gatherings, card games, or spending time with her grandchildren, and this was when she wasn’t hosting the extravaganza herself. Everyone knew she didn’t play about her grandkids or anyone else’s for that matter.

Church was Pet’s second home, where she dedicated her love and cooking talents to the fellowship. Celebrating holidays at her home was comparable to eating at a buffet, where one could consistently expect her to provide a diverse range of options, spanning from soul food to barbecue, and Italian, including her celebrated homemade hog hand cheese. The assortment of cakes and pies were outstanding. She took great care to ensure that every visitor left her home feeling fulfilled. Her home was a testament to the power of love and warmth, and those memories will remain with us forever.

Now that I have arrived at my final resting place, I am comforted to have been warmly received by my loved ones who preceded me in death, including my lovely son Lonnie Luellen, and my siblings: Augusta Jones, Clarence Hughes, Ledoria Jones, Roxie Oliver, L.B. Hughes, Lynzell Hughes, and Vernice Mack.

I leave to cherish my memory to my 5 children: Ted Snow (Linda), Hattie White (A.C.), Ronald Luellen (Janet), Tammany Snow, and Barbara Ann Snow. 7 remaining siblings and a list of grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Remember Me

Don’t remember me with sadness,
Don’t remember me with tears,
Remember all the laughter,
We’ve shared throughout the years.

Now I am contented
That my life it was worthwhile,
Knowing as I passed along the Way I made somebody smile.

When you are walking down the street
And you’ve got me on your mind,
I’m walking in your footsteps
Only half a step behind.
So please don’t be unhappy
Just because I’m out of sight,
Remember that I’m with you
Each morning, noon and night.

The Broken Chain

That morning, we were unaware that God would soon call your name. In life, we held you in high esteem. In death, our reverence for you persists. Your departure left us heartbroken. You did not leave us behind alone, for a part of us went with you the day God summoned you home. You left us with tranquil recollections. Your love remains our guiding principle. And though you are no longer visible to us, you remain by our side. Sadly, the family chain is broken and nothing seems the same, but as God calls us one by one the chain will link again.

Your children

As you rest, your love endures as a guiding light in our lives. We will uphold your legacy of love and kindness forever. Until we meet again, Grandma, we love you, Your grandchildren
