Tommie Dunlap

Tommie James Dunlap, affectionately known as TJ, was born September 1, 1952, in Cliftonville, MS to Mary Alice Jackson and John Walter Bush Jr.

Tommie accepted Christ at an early age and attended Fairview MB Church in Crawford, Mississippi. Years later Tommie joined Old Landmark Church of God Holiness in Christ #1 under the leadership of the late Apostle Robert L. Mitchell who performed the marriage ceremony of Tommie and Joe Ann Staves on April 3, 1976. Tommie enjoyed singing in the choir and fellowshipping with the members of the Old Landmark Church currently known as the Original Old Landmark Church of God Holiness in Christ, Inc. He was dedicated to rendering his services under the current pastor, Bishop Lary Schiefelbusch.

Tommie was very handy and loved working in maintenance and groundskeeping, as well as rehabbing buildings in Harvey, IL, where he established his business, Dunlap Construction Inc. Tommie was always eager to use his skills to help many of the church members. He and Deacon Thomas Johnson labored together on many projects.

Tommie James Dunlap departed this life on Tuesday, December 30, 2025. Tommie is preceded by his father John Walter Bush Jr.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his loving wife, Joe Ann Dunlap; his mother, Mary Alice Jackson; one son, Larry Edmond; four daughters, Kimberly Dunlap, Dyneen Scott (Shannon), Tareisha Dunlap, and Destiny Irons; six grandchildren, Jada Edmond, Essence Dunlap, Rhyann Collins, Eternity Dunlap, Bryce Jackson, and Cailyn Jackson; two great grandchildren, Noelani Shemwell and A'miyah Williams; three sisters, Lue Bertha Tate, Coria Dunlap, and Angela Harris; nine brothers, William Jackson, Ernest Dunlap, Lonnie Dunlap, Franklin Dunlap, Billie Wayne White, Kenny White, Willie Jackson, Jeffrey Jackson, and Charles Jackson; a host of relatives and friends.
