Life Reflections

Frank Douglas Price was born on April 15, 1936, the fourth child of Veola and Frank Calloway Price. Frank grew up in Columbus, Texas and graduated from what was known as the “Colored” High School. He was loved by his peers and teachers.

Frank served in the Air Force from 1956-1960. After moving to Chicago, he worked until retirement at the Toys R Us warehouse. One to not be idle, he then worked for the Chicago Park District at Ogden Park.

Frank gave his life to Christ under the leadership of Bishop Emery Lindsay at Christ Temple Cathedral, where he began to serve faithfully. Frank loved Psalm 91; his favorite song was “Safe in Beulah.”

At Christ Temple, he met the love of his life, Marian Jones. They married on January 22, 1994. Frank and Marian were blessed to receive their son, Devonte, into their lives. Frank was also extremely fond of his nephew, Tony Russell.

A devoted member of Christ Temple, Frank served in the Breakfast Ministry; on the Usher Board, at one time serving as president; drove the church van; was a member of the Sunday Blessings of Obedience Sunday School class; and could be depended on to open and close the church.

Those remaining to mourn his passing are: Marian, his wife of 29 years; son, Devonte; sisters: Zettie Marie Herbert and Margie Rene Titus; brother, James Edward Price (Stella); and many other nieces, nephews, and friends.
