Viola
 ARLETHA
Hartsfield

APRIL 17, 1948 - MAY 23, 2023

Her Story

Saturday, April 17, 1948, Viola Arletha was welcomed into this world by her loving parents, Edgar and Alvine Moore.

She started school at Mason Elementary School on the West side of Chicago, and transferred to Ryder Elementary School when the family relocated. When she started High School she attended John Marshall Harlan High School. Here she took up sewing and became an excellent seamstress. She graduated in 1967. Later that year she joined in holy matrimony with Thomas Hartfield., From this union their son LaMont was born.

Her first job was with The National Tea Company, where she worked for many years until the company closed. From there she moved on to become a clerk with the Chicago Public Schools. She retired after having served 30 years.

Viola loved to travel, and would often go places with The Golden Girls (a social group of close friends and relatives). She also went on a cruise to the Bahamas with her sister and two nieces.

Viola was preceded in death by her parents (Edgar and Alvine Moore), and her older sister (Forrest Williams).

She leaves behind to cherish her memory, her son LaMont (Dorothy), her sister and family in New Orleans Amy (Henry – Henry, Jr., Rachel and Eric), sister Alvine (Brian – Cassandra, Dominique, Dante and Destiny), niece Patricia (Ashley), nephew Anthony (Nicholas), niece Sandra (Louis – Danielle), special siblings from other mothers (Julius Burrell, Joyce Eberhart and Candice Clayton), and a host of family, friends and neighbors.

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found that peace at the close of the day
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered Joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss Ah, yes, these things I too will miss
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life has been full, I've savored much
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
Lift up your heart and share with me
God wanted me now, He set me FREE!
