

A portrait of an elderly woman with dark, curly hair, wearing a white bucket hat and a brown and white houndstooth jacket. She is smiling slightly and looking upwards. The background is a vibrant red with large, stylized floral patterns in shades of red, orange, and gold.

In Loving Memory of

Louise
MOORE

SUNRISE: JUNE 15, 1937

SUNSET: SEPTEMBER 2, 2025

Louise Moore

“I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith.” – 2 Timothy 4:7

Louise Moore, a devoted woman of faith and beloved matriarch, went home to be with the Lord on June 2, 2025, at the age of 88.

Born on June 15, 1937, in Lamar, Mississippi, to Callie & Johnny Washington, Louise lived a life filled with love, prayer, and service. She gave her life to Jesus in 1963 and never wavered in her walk with Him. Her faith was the cornerstone of her life, and she prayed daily for her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren, covering each of them in love and protection.

“The prayer of a righteous person is powerful and effective.” – James 5:16

Louise’s greatest joy was her family. She opened her home and her heart to all, creating a haven where love and support were always found. While her children worked and finished school, Louise stepped in without hesitation to help raise her grandchildren, instilling in them values of faith, perseverance, and kindness. To her, family was everything, and she gave of herself freely to ensure they had the foundation they needed to thrive.

Her home was more than just a house — it was a sanctuary. Whenever times grew hard, her children and grandchildren knew they could always return home, and Louise welcomed them with open arms and a listening ear. Her love was unconditional, her spirit unshakable, and her presence a source of comfort to all who entered her door.

“But as for me and my household, we will serve the Lord.” – Joshua 24:15

Louise is survived by her four children: Carolyn Artis (Landa Artis), Denise Newman, Geneva Moore-Squires (Kenneth Squires), and Frederick Moore (Cynthia Moore); fifteen grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; her two sisters, Velma Glenn & Dorthy Terry; and a host of nieces, nephews, and friends who will continue to live out the values she so lovingly preached.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Callie & Johnny Washington; her husband, James Moore; three sons, Stanley Moore, Curtis Moore, and James Moore Jr.; and one daughter, Eliece McDay.

Louise Moore will be remembered as a prayer warrior, a woman of unwavering faith, and a mother and grandmother who poured her life into her family. Her legacy of love, devotion, and faith in Jesus will continue to shine brightly through the generations she so dearly cherished.

“Well done, good and faithful servant... Enter into the joy of your Lord.” – Matthew 25:23

Sentiments From Her Family

Poem from Her Children

Mother, your love was steadfast,
your prayers a guiding light,
you showed us faith in Jesus,
and taught us what is right.
Your home was filled with kindness,
your arms were our safest place,
you gave us strength and courage,
with tender care and grace.
Though now you rest in Heaven,
your presence we still feel,
your legacy lives within us,
your faith, your love, so real.
Forever we will honor you,
your name we will confess,
our mother, our sweet blessing –
truly, we were blessed.
“Her children arise and call her blessed.” – Proverbs 31:28

To Our Beloved Grandma

Grandma, your love was always near,
Your gentle voice, so calm and clear.
You taught us kindness, faith, and grace,
And filled our hearts, our lives, our space.
Your prayers were shields that kept us strong,
You guided us when paths seemed long.
Your home was warm, your arms our rest,
With you we always felt our best.
Though now you rest in Heaven above,
We carry on your life of love.
Your laughter, lessons, and tender care
Will live in us everywhere.
Forever in our hearts you stay,
A shining light that guides our way.
We love you, Grandma, now and forever,
Your memory and love will leave us never.

Closing Prayer

“Lord, we thank You for the life of Louise Moore. We rejoice that she now rests in Your eternal presence, free from pain, worry, and sorrow. We find peace in knowing she is in Paradise, embraced by Your love and surrounded by everlasting joy. Though we mourn her absence here on earth, we celebrate her heavenly homecoming. May her faith continue to inspire us, her prayers continue to cover us, and her love live on in our hearts until we are reunited again in Your glorious kingdom. Amen.”

Wednesday, September 10, 2025
Visitation 10:00am Service 11:00am
Monument of Faith Evangelistic Church
2750 W. Columbus Avenue
Chicago, IL 60652

Sister Lolita ~ Facilitator
Order of Service

Processional - Family
Old Testament Reading - Elder Willie Mae Pullins
New Testament Reading - Elder Barbara Allen
Prayer - Elder Barbara Allen
Selection - Minister Robert Holmes
Remarks - Family
Resolution & Acknowledgments of Cards
Obituary Reading - Tiffany Price (Granddaughter)
Selection - Minister Robert Holmes
Eulogy - Apostle Mark Anthony Henton
Final Viewing
Recessional

Pallbearers

Keiyan Price
Michael Garmon
Cleavon Sims

Dion Jordan
Mark Williams
Marquise Artis

Interment

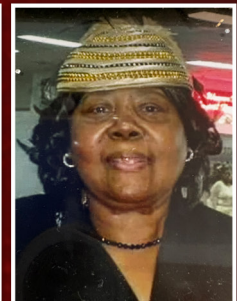

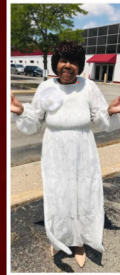

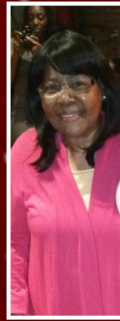

Mt. Hope Cemetery
11500 S. Fairfield Avenue
Chicago, IL 60655

Repast

Martha Venue
17135 Canal Street
South Holland, IL 60473

Acknowledgement

The family would like to sincerely thank everyone
for their calls, prayers, and support during this time.
Special thanks is extended to her devoted caregiver,
Shawanda, for going above and beyond the call of duty
in caring for our beloved Louise.

Arrangements Entrusted to:

Nabors Family Funeral Home

Lillie Nabors, L.F.D.E.

470 W. 172nd St

Thornton, Illinois 60476

Office/Cell: 708-704-5023

Expect Great Service... and Receive Greater.

