HIS STORY ODIS CHARLES WEBSTER

Odís Charles Webster was born on August 24, 1937, in Wyatt, Missouri, to the late Odís Webster Sr. and Clara Burnet. Music became his language of love and connection throughout his life.

Odís proudly served his country in the United States Army, using his guitar to bring joy and comfort to those around him.

In 1968, Odís met the love of his life, Rosetta Stewart, and they were united in marriage. Together, they built a life rooted in love, faith, and family.

Odís retired from Allied Tube in the early 2000s after many years of committed service. Even in retirement, he continued working with several bus companies throughout the south suburbs of Chicago.

A devoted man of faith, Odís became a dedicated member of Victory Temple Church of God in Christ. He later became a member of House of Prayer under the leadership of Elder Durden. He faithfully used his God-given musical talents to serve in numerous church choirs.

For over 10 years, Odís graced the stage at the Phoenix Fest with his band, sharing his gift of music with the community.

Odís was a devoted husband, father, Paw Paw, and friend. His presence was steady, loving, and full of life. His musical spirit will forever echo in the hearts of those who knew him.

Odís was preceded in death by his parents, Odís Sr. and Clara Burnet, and his beloved siblings: Louise, Walter, Elmo, Essie Williams, and Arthur.

Odís peacefully transitioned from this life on Thursday, February 12, 2026, with his loving family by his side. He leaves to cherish his memory his devoted and loving wife of 52 years, Rosetta; his loving daughter, Yolanda Elston (Richard); his beloved granddaughter, Tamisha Stewart; his adored grandson, Jermaine Stewart; his beloved daughter and sister-in-law, Nancy Williams; his sister, Jennie Latham of Cairo, Illinois; along with a host of nieces, nephews, extended family, and dear friends.

Though Odís may be gone from our sight, his music, love, and legacy will live on. The sound of his guitar and the joy he brought to others will forever remain in our hearts.
