ANTHONY

Williams

June 22, 1961 ~ November 22, 2024

THE LIFE REFLECTIONS OF
ANTHONY WILLIAMS

Anthony Williams was born on June 22, 1961, in Chicago Heights, Illinois to Dessie Ann Trammell and George Perkins.

Anthony lived many years in Chicago and relocated back to Chicago Heights in 2017. He attended Beale Elementary School, and he graduated from Englewood High School.

He worked at Warner Brother Records, Naja Co-Op and various other jobs in Chicago most of his life.

Anthony attended church occasionally and loved listening to God's Word as well as his true passion, "Stepping." He was the life of the party, and he was always on the dance floor. He loved his family and friends. He was the King of Steppers, and you couldn't tell him nothing different. He also loved softball and basketball.

Anthony was preceded in death by Dessie Ann Trammell (Mom); Andretta Peterson (Sister); Aurelia Trammell (Sister); Murphy and Queenie Williams (Grandparents); Reginald Austin (Stepfather), and George Perkins (Dad).

Anthony leaves to cherish his memories: one son, Charles Miller; one grandson, Jeremiah; four brothers, Albert Peterson, Orenthia Trammell (Teresa), Derek Austin (Paula), and C. J.; three sisters, Veronica Trammell, April White, Dominique Herron and Mommy Sue; six stepbrothers and sisters; Lesiie, Tyrone, Anthony, Sharon, Toby and Vee. A host of nieces and nephews.

Anthony aka "Pip", had a multitude of people who loved and helped him: Brownie, Snap, Mike-Mike, ToJo, (Family) Maurice, Julius, Claude, Daz, Englewood Family and Wallace Family; special friends: Barbara and Jackalyn; and special aunts: Christine Williams, Bessie Owens, and Naomia Gray.
