THE LIFE OF

Amanda Ann Mitchell

Amanda Ann Mitchell was born November 27, 1956, in Post Texas, to Malachi (Smokie) Mitchell and Mozella Lewey Mitchell. She was named after her grandmothers, Amanda Lewey and Annie Bell Mitchell. Her friends and family affectionately called her Mandy or Ann. Amanda attended public school in Post, Texas and graduated from Post High School, in 1974.

Amanda accepted God as her Lord and Personal Savior at an earlier age. She was a devoted member and Sunday School teacher at her childhood church, Pleasant Home Missionary Baptist Church.

She graduated from the University of Texas with a degree in criminology and a minor in hotel management.

Amanda moved to El Paso, Texas and worked for the Texas prison system as a correctional officer. Amanda switched careers and moved to Chicago where she retired from Northern Trust.

Amanda joined Apostolic Church of God, in 1999, and became an active member. She enjoyed praising God through song and sang in the choir's alto section.

Amanda is preceded in death by her parents, brother Malachi Jr., and sisters Doris Stamps and Emma Sparks.
